2. 5-C-1 to 5-C-6: Revised this section.

3. 5-C-8: Added: The Director of Human Resources will provide the complainant with written acknowledgement of the receipt of the complaint within fourteen (14) business days and conduct an investigation into the complaint. All information will be maintained in a confidential manner to the extent possible. Within sixty (60) days the Director of Human Resources will inform the sub-recipient in writing of the results of the investigation, including any findings and the remedy of the complaint. If the sub-recipient remains unsatisfied with the findings or remedy, a complaint can be filed with:
   - Office for Civil Rights
   - Office of Justice Programs
   - U.S. Department of Justice
   - 810 7th Street, NW
   - Washington, DC 20531

2. APPLICABILITY: This policy with procedures applies to the North Dakota Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation and its Division of Adult Services and Division of Juvenile Services (referred to as the Department), and all employees of the Department, and to all sub-recipients, employees of sub-recipients receiving federal or state financial assistance.

3. DEFINITIONS:

   A. Complainant: An individual who alleges he or she has suffered an act of unlawful discrimination committed by a Department sub-recipient, by an employee of a Department sub-recipient, or by another individual acting on behalf of the sub-recipient. A complainant may be a client, customer, program participant, consumer, applicant, or employee of a sub-recipient who has made a discrimination complaint under these procedures.

   B. Discrimination in Employment: An act that results in adverse or unequal treatment of employment based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, sexual orientation, physical or mental disability, status with regard to marriage or public assistance, or participation in lawful activity off the employer's premises during nonworking hours which is not in direct conflict with the essential business-related interests of the employer with regard to employment relations and provisions of services through the department, to prevent and eliminate discrimination and retaliation, and to deter those who aid, abet, or induce discrimination, or coerce others.

   C. Discrimination in the Provision of Services: An act that results in adverse or unequal treatment of a services applicant, client, customer, program participant, or consumer due to age, race, color, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, religion, disability or status with respect to marriage or the receipt of public assistance.

   D. Recipient: The Department is the State Administering Agency and recipient of federal financial assistance funds.

   E. Respondent: An individual or entity alleged to have committed an act of unlawful discrimination.

   F. Retaliation: Any adverse action taken against a client, customer or program participant, consumer, applicant, or employee of a sub-recipient who has filed a grievance.

   G. Sub-Recipient: The agency or organization receiving federal financial assistance funds through and administered by the recipient to carry out and achieve federal program goals. This does not include any individual who is a beneficiary of such a program.

H. Sub-Recipient Employee: An employee of an entity receiving United States Department of Justice federal financial assistance through and administered by the Department.

4. POLICY: All individuals have the right to participate in programs and activities funded by federal or state financial assistance and operated by the Department or its sub-recipients. The Department and its sub-recipients and employees of sub-recipients are committed to the principle of equal opportunity. The Department, sub-recipients, and employees of sub-recipients shall comply with the federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination. Sub-recipients shall have a mechanism to process requests for reasonable accommodations to known physical or mental impairments of a qualified individual with a disability, either an applicant or an employee (2-CO-1C-09-1.) Sub-recipients may not retaliate against an individual for taking action or participating in action to secure rights protected discrimination laws. The Department shall provide a process for receiving and addressing complaints of discrimination or retaliation against sub-recipients and employees of sub-recipients from employees, applicants, clients, customers, consumers, and program participants.

5. PROCEDURES:

A. Any sub-recipient employee who is informed about or believes discrimination is occurring shall report it as soon as possible after the occurrence to the Department’s Human Resources Director.

B. The sub-recipient shall ensure no retaliation occurs against complainants or persons who participate in a complaint investigation.

C. Any client, customer, program participant, consumer, applicant, or employee of a sub-recipient who claims they have been subjected to unlawful discrimination may submit a complaint in writing with the following information:

1. Complainant information (name and contact);
2. Basis of the discrimination (race, national origin, disability, age, sex, religious freedom);
3. Date(s) the discrimination occurred;
4. Summary of allegations; and
5. Remedy being sought

6. All civil rights complaints should be filed with the Department’s Human Resources Director within 180 days or one year, depending on the relevant statute, at the following address:

   North Dakota Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation
   Office of the Director of Human Resources
   PO Box 1898
   3100 Railroad Avenue
   Bismarck ND 58502-1898
   Phone: (701) 328-6100
   Email Address: docrhr@nd.gov
7. If a Department employee other than the Department’s Human Resources Director receives a complaint, the employee shall forward the complaint to the Department’s Human Resources Director within 24 hours.

8. The Director of Human Resources will provide the complainant with written acknowledgement of the receipt of the complaint within fourteen (14) business days and conduct an investigation into the complaint. All information will be maintained in a confidential manner to the extent possible. Within sixty (60) days the Director of Human Resources will inform the sub-recipient in writing of the results of the investigation, including any findings and the remedy of the complaint. If the sub-recipient remains unsatisfied with the findings or remedy, a complaint can be filed with:

Office for Civil Rights
Office of Justice Programs
U.S. Department of Justice
810 7th Street, NW
Washington, DC 20531

D. Training: The Department shall require sub-recipient agencies and appropriate sub-recipient employees receive annual training regarding applicable federal civil rights laws and regulations and related complaint procedures and policies.

E. The Department shall post this policy and procedures on the Department’s website in the Victim Services Section to make it available to sub-recipient agencies and their employees. Sub-recipient agencies shall make their policies and procedures regarding discrimination available to sub-recipient employees.

F. Recordkeeping and Disclosure:

1. The Department and Department’s sub-recipients shall retain records related to complaints and investigations in accordance with federal and state law. Sub-recipients shall submit copies of records related to complaints and investigations to the Department’s Human Resources Director. The Department’s Human Resources Director shall maintain records related to all complaints. Information about the identity of any persons providing information related to or assisting in an investigation must be maintained in a confidential manner to the extent possible. In the event it is necessary to disclose a person’s identity, the person shall be protected from retaliation.

2. The sub-recipient agency shall maintain a record of the federal civil rights laws and regulations annual training completed by the sub-recipient’s director and appropriate sub-recipient employees for review by the Department.
